IRAS
The Institute on Religion in an Age of Science

Purpose—IRAS is an independent society of scientists, philosophers, religion scholars, theologians, and others who want to understand the role of religion in our dynamic scientific world.

Activities—Each year IRAS holds a week-long conference on Star Island, 10 miles off the coast of Portsmouth, New Hampshire. Topics are selected to be relevant to current scientific thinking and to fundamental religious questions. (IRAS members pay a reduced rate for conference registration.)

IRAS organizes events at the annual meetings of the American Academy of Religion (AAR) and the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS). IRAS has sponsored more than 250 meetings at universities, colleges, and theological schools.

Publications—Zygon: Journal of Religion and Science, IRAS Newsletter, and Science & Religion News. IRAS members receive subscriptions to these three publications free of additional charge.

Special Relationships—Affiliated Society, American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS); Member, Council of Societies for the Study of Religion (CSSR).

Membership Dues

$60.00 Individual Member

$65.00 Joint Member (two memberships but one set of publications)

$40.00 Student Member (requires copy of student ID)

$110.00 Institutional Member (supports IRAS's work: $54.00 is tax deductible)

Overseas members are assessed a surcharge to cover mailing costs.

Invitation to Join—If you are in accord with the purposes of IRAS and would like to become a member, please submit an application to the IRAS Council, which reviews and votes on applications at biannual meetings in February and July. For an application write to:

An Extraordinary Time-Limited Offer

ALL OF TEILHARD'S SCIENTIFIC WRITINGS

Paleontological and geological which have been published in scientific reviews, plus a few hundred pages of scientific papers that were never published because of lack of funds during the depression years of the 1930s, are available for a limited time at a very special price:

10 volumes of 500 pages each } $150 + postage and handling
1 volume of maps }

Must be ordered through Nicole Schmitz-Moormann
50 Stockton Street
Princeton, NJ 08540, U.S.A.

Professor Karl Schmitz-Moormann and his wife Nicole spent many years collecting and editing the scientific works of Pierre Teilhard de Chardin. Because of storage costs they will have to destroy some of the sets that are not sold through the above special offer. Those left over will be priced at the original level of about $1,200 per set.

Zoologist Lodovico Galleni of the University of Pisa is only one of the many scientists who has quoted widely from the ten volumes of scientific papers. With interest in Teilhard growing, a knowledge of his scientific work is important.
